HOME RULES

Before you settle in and get comfortable, we would like to make you aware of the House Rules in place at our vacation rental. Understanding and complying with our house rules will make for a comfortable and fun stay for everybody!

Please treat our house with the same respect as you would your own home. We've put a lot of effort into making this into a lovely space to be enjoyed by our guests. Be sure to maintain a good level of cleanliness throughout your stay, this will make it much easier when check-out time comes!

In case of any accidental damage, we'll look into the issue internally to decide if and how much the deduction or repair cost will be.

We hope you have lots of laughter and fun times during your vacation! However, we'd really appreciate it if you're mindful and keep noise to a minimum during nighttime hours. Please ensure you read and fully understand the house rules at the beginning of your stay. If anything is unclear, please contact us so we can explain in further detail to avoid any misunderstandings.

Rome in 2 days

a smart and easy travel guide to enjoy your stay in Rome

Rome in 2 days:

first day

«Rome in 2days» - First Day (1/8)

Walk up to «Piazza Vittorio Emanuele» metro station
(5 min 400 mt)

N.B. You can get the metro tickets directly at the station at the special machines

Take the metro towards “Battistini” and get off in “Ottaviano” (seven stops)

«Rome in 2days» - First Day (2/8)

Walk up to Musei Vaticani
(7 min 550 mt)

N.B. from Monday to Saturday 9.00-18.00 (last admission at 4pm and exit from the rooms half an hour before closing).

As the museums are really huge, so for a panoramic visit we suggest you to go the Pinacoteca, the Pio-Clementino Museum, the Gallery of the Geographical Maps, the Rooms of Raphael and of course to the amazing Sistine Chapel with its priceless frescoes by Michelangelo.

Make sure you stay in the museum for at least two hours.

«Rome in 2days» - First Day (3/8)

N.B. Remember to wear clothes that are appropriate to the place, otherwise they will not let you in: miniskirts, shorts, and bare shoulders are forbidden.

Walk up to Piazza San Pietro
(11 min 1 km)

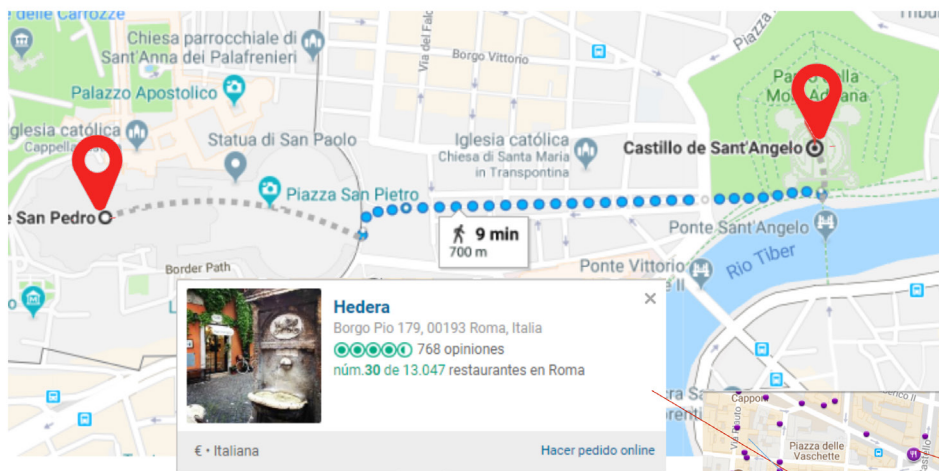

Enjoy the thrill you will experience once you arrive at this one of the largest public spaces in the world and be amazed by the majesty of St. Peter's Basilica and the magnificence of the decorations and works of art it contains. Splendid the canopy of Bernini on the papal altar and its huge dome.

Stop to admire the moving Pietà by Michelangelo, protected by a bulletproof glass, in a chapel at the beginning of the right aisle. Sculpted by the artist at the age of only 25, it's the only work that bears her signature (on the band around Maria's chest).

If you have time enough and you want to climb the dome, you can do it by climbing the 551 steps leading up to the top, or taking the lift with leads up to the level of the terrace.

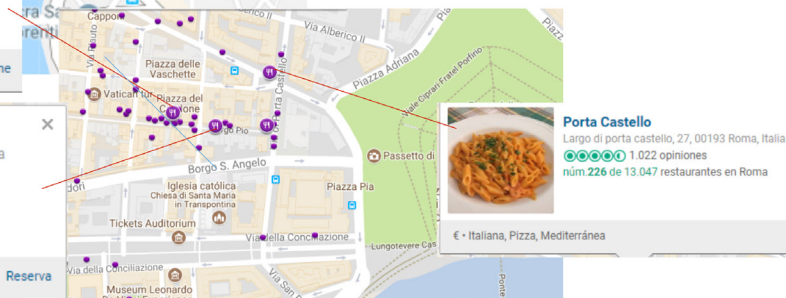

«Rome in 2days» - First Day (4/8)

Walk up to Castel Sant'Angelo
(8 min 700mt)

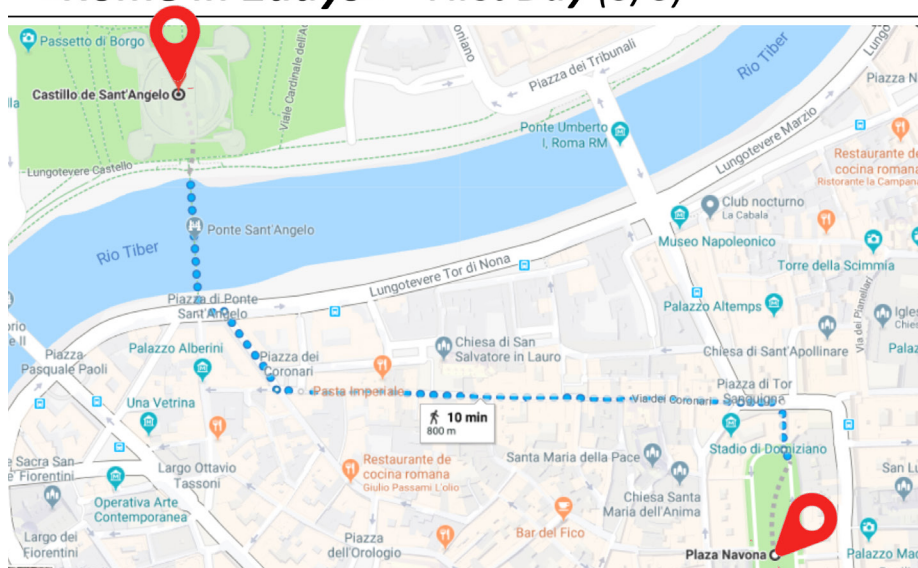

Take Via della Conciliazione all the way to Castel Sant'Angelo for a visit only from the outside. If you are not so tired you can enter and visit it, without neglecting to go to the Terrazza dell'Angelo, from where you can enjoy a superb view of the city.

Stop then and take a lunch break.

«Rome in 2days» - First Day (5/8)

Walk up to Piazza Navona
(9 min 800mt)

Piazza Navona will charm you with its beautiful Baroque palaces and magnificent fountains (including the one of the four rivers by Bernini). Get lost in the crowd of tourists, portraitists and street artists who fill it at any time.

«Rome in 2days» - First Day (6/8)

Walk up to Pantheon
(6 min 500mt)

One of the many symbols of Rome and the best preserved ancient monument of the capital. Once inside you will be amazed by the magnificent marble interior and the amazing dome, which is the largest dome in the world, built in unarmored concrete.

«Rome in 2days» - First Day (7/8)

Walk up to Fontana di Trevi
(8 min 650mt)

The impact is breathtaking ... you will be literally fascinated by it which is one of the must-see attractions in Rome.

Then you can enjoy one of the most famous ice cream in Rome at the Gelateria di San Crispino (Via della Panetteria, 42)

«Rome in 2days» - First Day (8/8)

Walk up to Piazza di Spagna
(7 min 600mt)

Welcome to the elegant eighteenth-century Piazza di Spagna with its famous staircase of Trinità dei Monti (which with its new restoration has regained its old glory), at whose foot is the famous Barcaccia fountain.

Now you can go back Home

Take the metro at Spagna metro station towards “Anagnina” and get off at “Vittorio Emanuele” (4 stops)

Rome in 2 days:

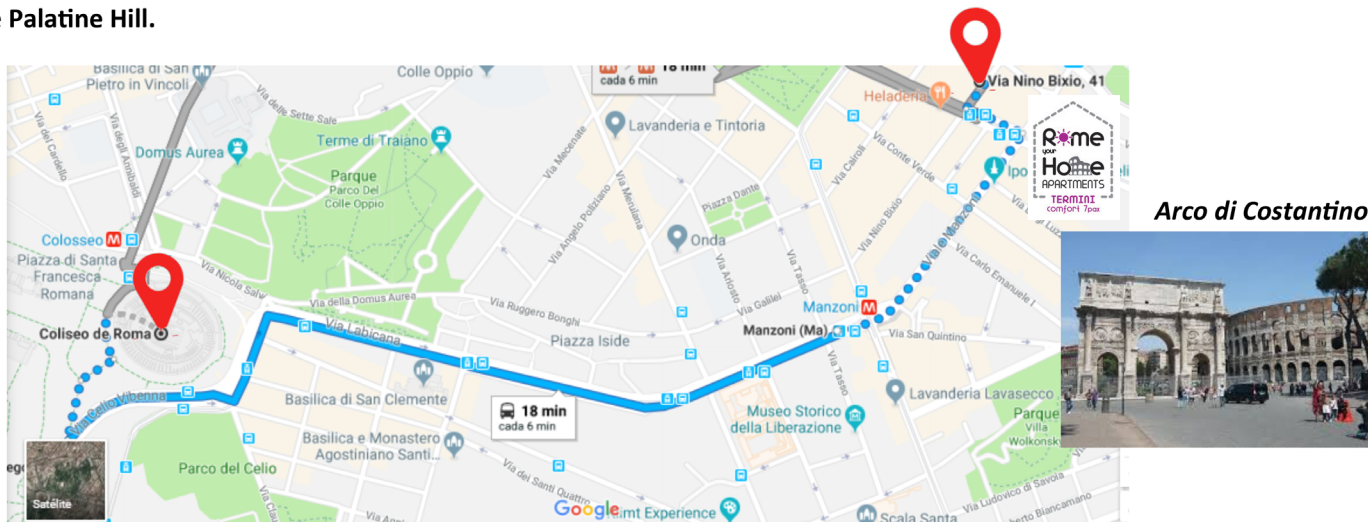

second day

«Rome in 2days» - Second Day (1/2)

Go to the Manzoni bus stop (8 min 600mt) and take the 51 “Lodi” direction (3 stops) ... go down to San Gregorio and walk up to Piazza del Colosseo (4 min, 300 mt)

A few steps from the Colosseum, on the right, stands the Arch of Constantine, the most famous Roman triumphal arch and the Palatine Hill.

«Rome in 2days» - Second Day (2/2)

Continuing on Via dei Fori Imperiali you get to the Roman Foro, the ancient square of Rome. On the other side of the road you can appreciate the area of the Imperial Forums.

Leave the Fori and head towards Piazza Venezia, one side of the square is occupied by a large monument inside where important exhibitions are often hosted: the Vittoriano.

The panoramic lifts will take you at to the top where you can enjoy a breathtaking view. The last stage of this is the Campidoglio, the smallest, but the most famous Roman hill. The floor of the square is decorated with the famous twelve-pointed star of Michelangelo. At the center of the star, there is a large statue on horseback: it is the perfect copy of the monument to the emperor Marcus Aurelius.

We suggest you to visit the Capitoline Museums where the original statue is kept.
